Words to Know

What the words mean - and the places we call home.

BACKBAY - Back Bay, Boston's brownstone neighborhood, made for strolling.

BEACON - Beacon Hill, Boston's old brick neighborhood under the golden dome.

BOSTON - Our home city on the harbor, full of history, hospitals, and heart.

BRIDGE - A span over water. Bridges link our neighborhoods across the river.

CAMBRIDGE - The city across the river, home to famous universities.

CAPECOD - Cape Cod, the sandy arm of Massachusetts. Sea air and easy walks.

CHARLES - The river that winds past Boston. Its banks are made for walks.

COMMON - Boston Common, the old public park at the heart of the city.

FENWAY - Fenway Park, home of the Red Sox since 1912. A joyful place in summer.

FREEDOM - The Freedom Trail, a red-brick line past Boston's historic sites.

HARBOR - Boston Harbor, where ships come and go. Ferries still cross it daily.

MARKET - Faneuil Hall Marketplace, full of food stalls and shops.

PATRIOTS - New England's football team, cheered on fall Sundays.

QUINCY - The city south of Boston, birthplace of two presidents.

SUBWAY - The T, Boston's underground trains, handy all over the city.

Out and about in our city

A walk in a familiar place is good exercise and good company. Take your time, watch your step, and enjoy the city we call home.
