Words to Know

What the words mean - and how music lifts the heart.

BANJO - A round string instrument with a happy twang, made for toe-tapping.

CHOIR - A group singing together. Singing with others lifts the spirits.

DANCING - Moving to music. Gentle dancing is joyful exercise for body and mind.

DRUMS - Instruments you beat for rhythm. Their beat gets feet moving.

GOSPEL - Uplifting church music, sung with joy. It fills the heart with hope.

GUITAR - A string instrument you strum. Playing keeps fingers nimble.

HYMN - A song of praise sung in church. Old hymns carry dear memories.

JAZZ - Lively American music that loves to improvise. It swings and surprises.

MELODY - The main tune of a song, the part you find yourself humming later.

PIANO - An instrument of black and white keys, played with both hands.

RHYTHM - The steady beat of music. Moving to a beat can steady your steps.

SONGS - Music with words. A favorite song can bring back a whole day, and old friends too.

TRUMPET - A bright brass instrument. Its sound can lift a whole room.

VIOLIN - A string instrument played with a bow. Its voice is sweet and singing.

WALTZ - A graceful dance in three beats. Many couples learned it young.

A little music every day

Put on a favorite song while you work, walk, or rest. Music can lift your mood, stir good memories, and even get your feet tapping along.
